

Cool and Collected

500 square-foot, low-shade garden design

500 square-foot, low-shade garden fact sheet

Scientific Name	Common Name	Water Requirement	Sun Exposure	Bloom Time	Low Flammability	Features	Height	Spread	Maintenance
Arctostaphylos uva ursi	Kinnikinnick	Low	Filtered Shade to Shade	Early Spring	No	Evergreen, mat forming, year-round interest	3-6"	2-6'	None
Certosmingoes plumbago	Plumbago	Low	Sun to Shade	Mid to Late Summer	Yes	Attracts pollinators, foliage turns red in the fall	8-12"	18-24"	Cut back browned foliage to the ground in spring
Diascia integerrima CORAL CANYON	CORAL CANYON Twinspur	Low/Medium	Sun to Filtered Shade	Late Spring to Summer	Yes	Attracts pollinators, long bloom season	12-15"	8-12"	Cut back browned foliage to the ground in spring
Heuchera sanguinea 'Snow Angel'	Variegated Coral Bells	Low/Medium	Sun to Shade	Spring to Summer	No	Attracts pollinators, versatile	12-18"	10-15"	Cut back browned foliage to the ground in spring
Mahonia repens	Creeping Colorado Holly	Low	Sun to Shade	Late Spring to Early Summer	No	Native, year-round interest	12-18"	12-18"	None
Pulsatilla vulgaris	European Pasqueflower	Low	Sun to Shade	Early Spring	No	Early bloomer with attractive seed pods, deer resistant	6-12"	8-12"	Cut back browned foliage to the ground in spring

Scientific Name	Common Name	Water Requirement	Sun Exposure	Bloom Time	Low Flammability	Features	Height	Spread	Maintenance
Vinca minor 'Bowles Variety'	Bowles Periwinkle	Low	Sun to Shade	Early to Late Summer	Yes	Mat like, establishes quickly, semi-evergreen	6-12"	18-24"	None

If you need additional information or have questions regarding this garden design and fact sheet, please contact Highlands Ranch Water's Water Efficiency Coordinator at pmcfarland@hrwater.org or 720-240-4918.

